

SPECIAL PROJECT FUNDS

Sometimes the most efficient and effective way to address a community challenge or take advantage of a powerful opportunity is for a collaborative group of individuals or nonprofits or a for-profit company to establish a Special Project Fund. We limit the number of Special Project Funds we open to those few high-impact projects that will improve some aspect of life in Central Texas in a substantial manner—but cannot do so without partnering with the Foundation. Such projects generally have funding sources confirmed and are temporary or collaborative in nature.

Special Project Funds are not intended to provide fiscal sponsorship for new nonprofit organizations awaiting their tax-exempt status.
